Catch the interaction at a lively 'Intersection'

Artquake's where the action is this weekend — and in "Intersection" it's both surprising and ever-changing. Visual artist Linda Wysong and choreographer Linda K. Johnson are collaborating with union construction workers on an evolving sculpture/performance piece that lasts all weekend long. You can catch it in hour or half-hour bursts in the Performance Courtyard on Southwest Main Street by the Performing Arts Center. Sunday times are 1, 5 and 9:30 p.m.; on Monday it's at 1 and 5 p.m.
